Tips and tricks

Session/Semester/Trimester: At UQTR, we use the term session to define the period of courses. We estimate that a session is equivalent to 15 weeks of classes, so it also corresponds to the term trimester.

Welcome week:

We suggest arriving on campus approximately 2 weeks before classes begin. Students are notified by email about the mandatory welcome session, the steps to follow upon arrival and any other relevant information.

The École Internationale de Français (ÉIF) offers courses at several levels of French that may be of interest to you. These courses are included in the UQTR course offerings. If you would like more information about the ÉIF, please send an email to exchange.bri@uqtr.ca.
